

Partners In Governance Conference

Can State and Local Governments Get Along? March 23, 2015

Calling all Elected Officials, Policy Makers, and Community Leaders ...

Inter-governmental relations grow more important in a society that is increasingly interdependent. This conference seeks to answer questions such as: How do we balance local accountability against state and federal consistency? How can local officials and state and federal agencies foster good relationships? Join us as we learn from success stories and cautionary tales.

Join Us ...

Date: March 23, 2015

Time: 8:30 a.m. Registration
9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Place: Reynolds Alumni Center
University of Missouri
Columbia, Missouri

Cost: $55.00 (includes lunch)

Register online before March 9 at:
<http://ipp.missouri.edu/>

For more info contact:

Tracey Potts at (573) 882-1739

Agenda ...

9:30 a.m. Keynote: Reginald Robinson, Director and Professor of the School of Public Affairs, University of Kansas

11:00 a.m. Water Regulations: Getting Everyone On Board

1:00 p.m. Economic Development: Can State Policies Help Rural Municipalities?

2:30 p.m. Police Review Boards: Bridging the Divide Between State and Local Communities

Please note that this conference will qualify for 2 hours of elective credit in the MML Municipal Governance Institute. For more information on the Institute or about the conference, please visit mocities.com or call (573) 635-9134.

